Exciting Gifts & Special Offers in Line for Anniversary Celebrations at Eton Institute:

Dubai, 10 February 2010 –Eton Institute, U.A.E’s leading training & development institute based in Dubai have revealed plans to host their biggest ever anniversary celebration next month with free offers, exciting prizes and massive discounts for all visitors on the day. The young and vibrant institute located in Dubai Knowledge Village will be marking their 4th anniversary this year on 11th March, popularly known as Eton Day among students and supporters.

Keeping the specifics under wraps, Dr. Eli Abi Rached, Director, Eton Institute commented: “We would like to share this special day by thanking our warm community of students, teachers and well wishers. Although the details are a closely guarded secret at the moment, I can promise you that Eton Day will be an incredible day packed with festivities, free gifts, prizes and massive discounts.”

Eton Institute witnessed a tremendous response last year on Eton Day with a huge influx of people rushing to book their courses for the entire year at extremely subsidized prices offered only on the day. With preparations underway for their biggest ever anniversary bash this year, the institute is gearing up to offer exciting prizes on the hour every hour!
