WIN an Apple iPad at Eton Institute This April:

Dubai, 01 April 2010 – Eton Institute, the region's leading training and development institute announced an exciting opportunity for learners this April to win a brand-new coveted Apple iPad when they register for any language course, TESOL / TEFL or computer workshop during the month of April. The highly desired iPad worth over AED 2000 will come pre-loaded with useful language-learning apps for popular languages such as Arabic, French and Spanish and will be awarded to one lucky winner chosen through a raffle draw at the end of the month.

Dr. Eli Abi Rached, Director of Eton Institute commented: "We love delighting our students and what better way to do so than to giveaway the hottest, most revolutionary gadget in the market. The Apple iPad with its functionality, size and simplicity is a fantastic device with huge potential not just for connectivity and entertainment but most importantly for information and learning. From reading your daily newspaper to learning a new language using one of the thousands of useful apps available, the possibilities are endless."

Eton Institute, specialists in language, computer and teacher training offer a much-anticipated grand prize every month to one lucky winner and have in the past given away useful learning tools and devices such as a Netbook Computer and an iPod Touch. Entry into the grand monthly draw is simple and only requires enrollment for any course or workshop during the month to become automatically eligible (irrespective of course or workshop starting date).

Be the first to win an amazing Apple iPad packed with interactive language-learning apps to complement your learning with Eton Institute. Visit www.eton.ac to avail of this special offer or call 800-Eton (800-3866) today to speak with an adviser about the over 100 languages, computer workshops and teaching certification courses offered at the Institute. The free Apple iPad grand giveaway is a limited period offer valid upon settlement of course fees before 30 April 2010.
